25X1 As of 12 August 1949 Communist military positions were as follows:

25X1 Fukien

25X1 The axis of the Communist advance is Foochow, Meihsien and Canton. The Communists expect to have the East River bandits completely under their command very soon.

Kiangsi

Communist General CHEN Keng's troops are about 20 kilometers south of Sui-chuan and have a good clear road to Kanhsien. The lines of communication (sic) are in need of repair, and troops have been sent from Hankow for this purpose. The Communist objective after Kanhsien is Chuchiang, from which the Communist forces will swing northwest to strike Nationalist General PAI Chung-hsi's forces from the rear.

West Hunan

This area is quiet and is expected to remain so.

Hupeh

No Communist advance west from Ichang is expected because of the difficult terrain.

Northwest China

25X1 The Communist troops under General PENG Teh-huai are not strong. The Communist objective is to keep Nationalist General HU Tsung-nan's forces (recently
